Reconstructing historical recipes with students at the Pharmacy Museum Basel

The fourth meeting of the series History and philosophy of science features three internationally acclaimed experts in the history of medicine and pharmacy. In introducing us to their research projects and methods, Elisabeth Hsu, Elaine Leong, and Barbara Orland will address interdisciplinary themes like the experimental replication of laboratory practices, the transfer of medical and scientific knowledge, language and text critical studies.

Il quarto appuntamento della serie Storia e filosofia della scienza presenterà la ricerca e le metodologie di tre studiose internazionali di storia della medicina e della farmacia: Elisabeth Hsu, Elaine Leong e Barbara Orland. Nell'incontro si discuteranno temi interdisciplinari di cruciale importanza come la replica sperimentale delle pratiche di laboratorio, la trasmissione del sapere medico-scientifico, i problemi relativi alla traduzione e all'ecdotica dei testi.
